SWEATHOGS

Together we learned of love and friendship. . .

12

Traveling down the road of experience. . .

. . .learning about ourselves

along the way.

Inspiring each other. . .

. . .to do the impossible.

Although we will go our separate ways. . .

the love, laughter, and tears we have shared . . .

will be treasured forever.

DEDICATION

It is with appreciation and admiration that the class of 1981 dedicates our edition of the Lion's Roar to Miss Sandra Lawrence, a conscientious teacher, an exceptional worker, and a considerate and amiable friend. Our successful class activities are attributed to her endless contributions of time and effort. Our many thanks and gratitude are extended to our outstanding teacher and friend.

SPECIAL THANKS . . .

The yearbook editors would sincerely like to extend their gratitude to Mr. Winthrop Handy of Winthrop Studio in West Boylston for his unfailing enthusiasm and competence in taking countless photographs. His unselfish devotion of time and talent contributed greatly to the production of this yearbook. From taking a quality photograph to printing hundreds of different-sized pictures, Mr. Handy was always very willing to help. It is with deep gratefulness and thanks that we dedicate the photography of this yearbook to Mr. Winthrop Handy.

People learn from experience. When the yearbook editors held their first meeting in May of 1980, we thought that producing a yearbook would be a relatively simple task. However, the editors quickly learned that this was not the case. Mrs. Sharron Hubbard, our advisor, was then a novice in the yearbook field. As the year progressed, together, we learned the many phases necessary for the completion of this yearbook. Often, there were times of confusion and frustration, but nevertheless, without Mrs. Hubbard, the yearbook staff's job would not have been as successful. The yearbook staff wishes to express their many thanks and appreciation to Mrs. Hubbard for her work in producing our yearbook.

Faculty

ADMINISTRATION

Mrs. Nancy Smith, Assistant Superintendent

To the Class of 1981:

By the time you receive this yearbook, your days at West Boylston High School will have come to a close.

I think it is important that you understand and appreciate the opportunities afforded you by an interested community having provided the staff and academic equipment for a vital and valuable education.

Seek always to better yourselves and be determined to prepare yourselves for an intelligent citizenship using every means of further education.

Being graduated into today's society demands your special consideration of the future. You are reminded that as a country, we are striving to maintain our ideals of democracy. Maintaining a true democratic society requires genuine character. Keep informed. Demonstrate your beliefs. Show that you have vision, character, and a devotion to our public welfare.

On behalf of the staff and administration, sincere best wishes to all of you in all your future endeavors.

THE SIXTH ANNUAL PLAY COMPETITION
MAY 2, 1980

Throughout the years, the annual play competition has always been a very popular and enjoyable experience. Each class spent a great amount of time and effort with the preparation of their sets, costumes, props, and lighting for their plays. The class of 1981 presented the play, "An Apple for Teacher", a lighthearted comedy taking place in a small schoolhouse classroom. Student directors for the play were Donna Cooney and AnneMarie McLaughlin. The class of 1980 won the event.

"Hello, Dolly!" is the story of a matchmaker, Dolly Gallaher Levi (Mary Fulginiti '82), and her experiences in Younkers, New York, while trying to find a suitable wife for the wealthy Horace Vandergelder (Shawn Smith '80). Besides trying to match Horace with a wife, Dolly tries to get Horace's consent for his niece to marry Ambrose Kemper (Tony Barsamian '82). She also finds herself playing matchmaker for Vandergelder's clerks, Cornelius Hackl (Jeff Bartlett '80) and Barnaby Tucker (Mitch Sanders '81), who became infatuated with Irene Molloy (Deborah Borci '82) and Minnie Fay (Kathleen Mahoney '83). Dolly arranges everything behind Vandergelder's back which leads to a thrilling climax. "Hello, Dolly!" was the third annual musical presented by the West Boylston High School.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is comprised of those students who have been elected to membership on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. These four criteria are applied in compliance with the national standards of the society. On April 10, 1980, nine members of the Class of 1981 were inducted into the National Honor Society. These students included: Catherine Buonomo, Joseph DiPietro, Allison Fisher, David Gustafson, Francine Henault, Mary Herx, Alice Kirk, Suzanne Lamberto, and Nancy Noble. Other seniors were inducted into the society the following school year in November. Dr. Seth J. Hudak, Superintendent of the West Boylston school system, led the National Honor Society pledge, and Mr. John H. Begley presented the new members with cards and pins.

SPREE DAY

West Boylston High School's Third Annual Spree Day was held on June 2, 1980. The classes competed in a wide variety of activities which included softball games, pie-eating contests, the platform stand contest, volleyball, frisbee throw, and the grueling tug-o-war. There was an enormous amount of school spirit shown as each class vied to win first place in every event. It was a day of recreation and enjoyment for everyone who participated.

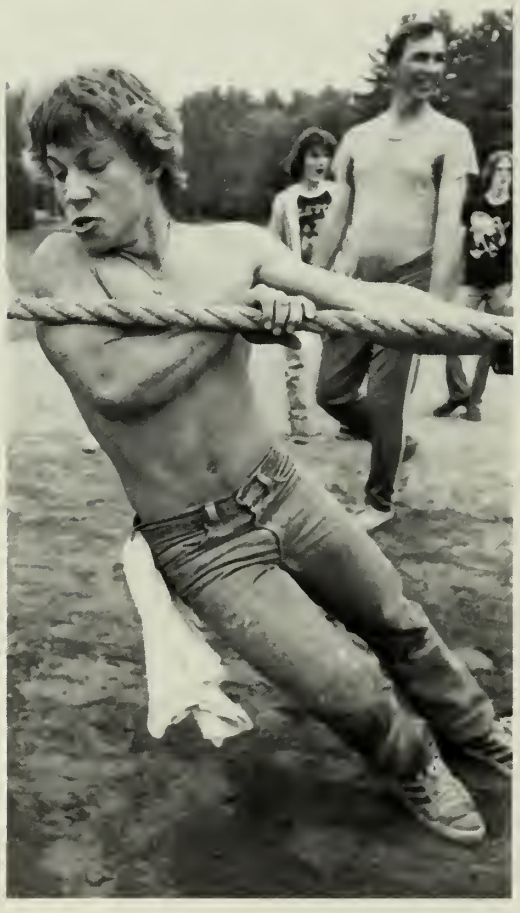
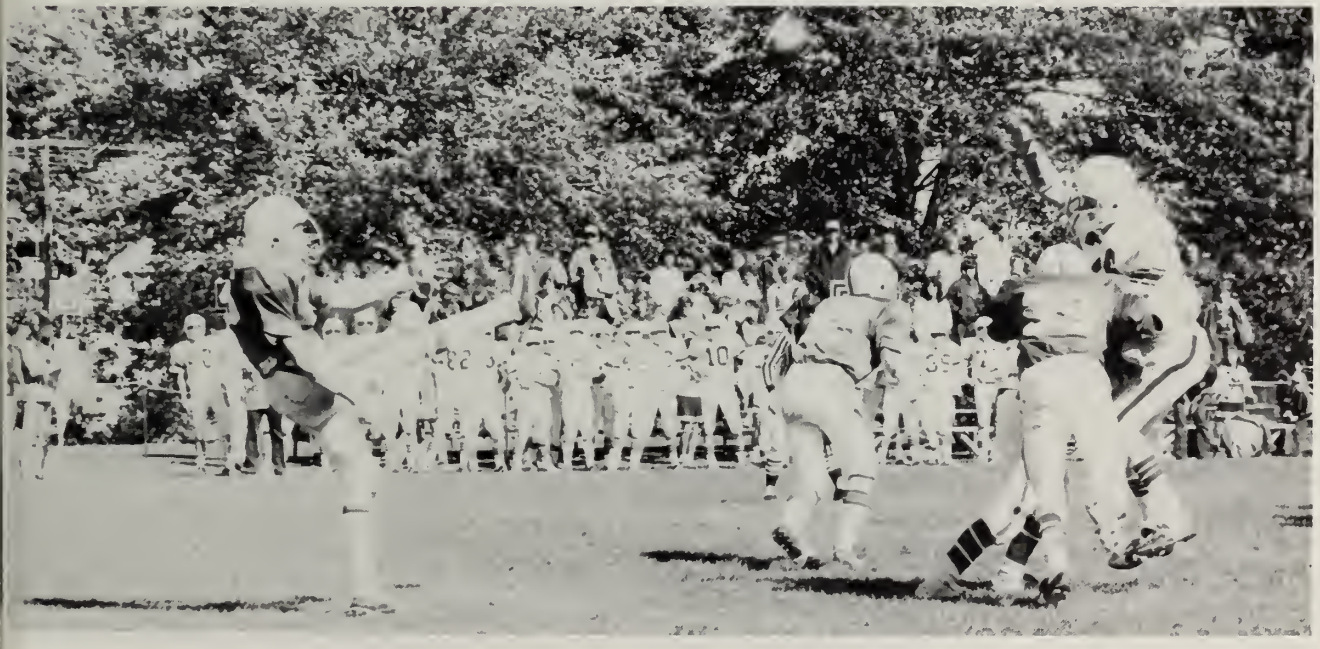
SPREE DAY



HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES



HOMECOMING DANCE

The West Boylston High School held its annual Homecoming the week of September 22nd. During the week, various events were held between the high school classes. Such events included a "Peanut Popper", "Beggar Man Thief" contest, "Bubble Gum Blowing" contest, and a Scavenger Hunt. The classes of 1981 and 1982 were tied in the weekly competitions. The annual Homecoming Pep Rally was held on Friday of that week, and the Homecoming Dance was held on the following Saturday night in the high school gymnasium. The Homecoming Court included Kim Akins, Erin Mahoney, Kathleen Mahoney, Danielle Barton, Natalie Barton, Roberta Mercurio, Francine Henault, and the 1980 Homecoming Queen, Allison Fisher. On the same Saturday, all althletic teams played against millbury. The whole week was a huge success.

Always and Forever

THE SENIOR BALL

The Class of 1981 held its Senior Ball at the Sheraton Yankee Drummer in Auburn on November 21, 1980. Music was provided by Mass Exit. The theme of this year's Senior Ball was "You are Wonderful Tonight".

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club for 1980-81 is involved in a number of projects to help build school spirit.

Club members are selling pom-pons at football and basketball games. Game ribbons have been sold during some of the major sport events such as the Thanksgiving classic against Grafton. The club sponsors bus trips to take students to some of the sporting events at other schools. Long range plans also include the club's annual victory dance which will be held in the early spring. The club is looking forward to a peppy, spirited year. Mr. Edward Staples, Advisor

There's always one that soars above the rest. In class rings, announcements, diplomas, club pins, medals and trophies, that one is Balfour, America's first jewelry manufacturer — and still the finest!

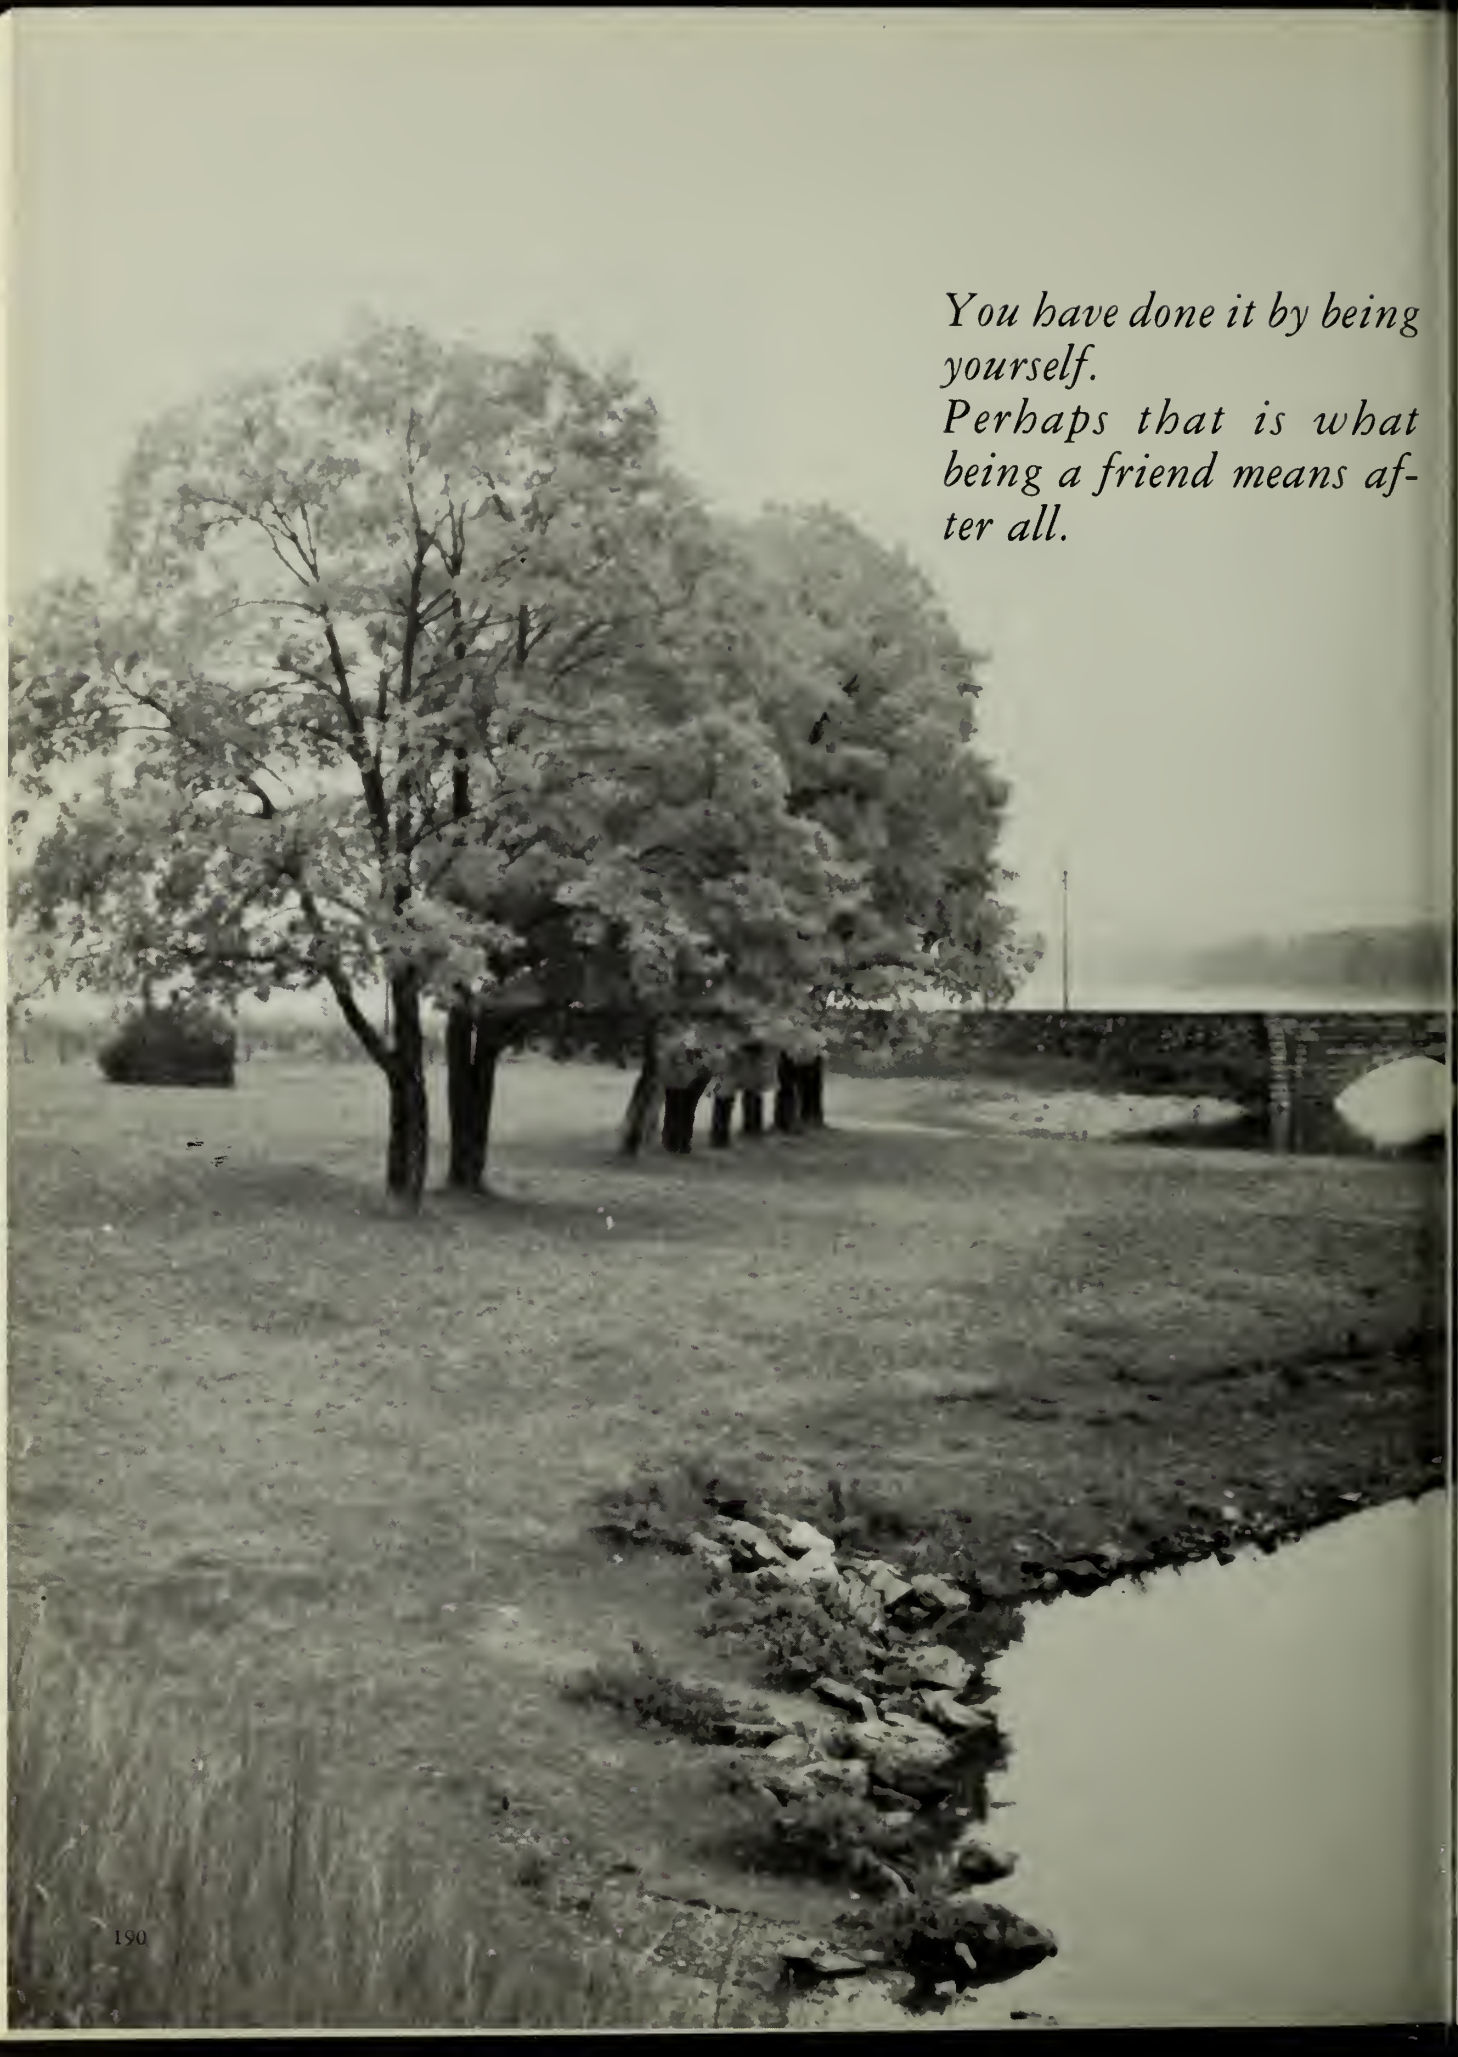
I love you not only for what you are, but for what I am when I am with you.

I love you not only for what you have made of yourself, but for what you are making of me.

I love you because you have done more than any blessing could have done to make me good and more than any fate could have done to make me happy.

You have done it without a touch, without a word, without a sign.



You have done it by being yourself.
Perhaps that is what being a friend means after all.
